

Vacancy notice:
Full-time Graphic Designer (38,5 hours/week)

Location: Vienna, Austria • Starting date: January 2026

About EANM:

The European Association of Nuclear Medicine (EANM) is the largest non-profit medical organisation for nuclear medicine in Europe. The EANM Executive Office runs the association and its activities, with the support of volunteers. Learn more at www.eanm.org.

Your profile:

You're organised, reliable and creative, can easily translate your team member's needs into engaging visual content, enjoy working in an international team, and bring hands-on experience in graphic design.

What you'll do:

- Create visual assets for print and digital channels (brochures, posters, course books, booths, newsletters, websites, social media etc.) — from concept to final delivery
- Support and help manage the upcoming rebranding project in collaboration with external partners, ensuring consistent and timely execution
- Respond to internal graphic requests and ensure brand coherence across teams
- Prepare print-ready files and coordinate with our partner agency, printers and external vendors

What you bring:

- Excellent command of English
- Degree in Graphic Design, Visual Communication, Multimedia Design or related field
- 3+ years of professional experience as a graphic designer (non-profit / medical / international environment is an asset)
- Strong skills in Adobe Creative Cloud (InDesign, Photoshop, Illustrator; Premiere Pro required; After Effects a plus)
- Basic WordPress / CMS editing and HTML/CSS
- Familiarity with e-mail marketing tools (e.g., Brevo)
- Basic photography and image optimisation
- Experience in video editing, motion graphics is an asset
- Strong organisational skills and attention to detail
- Creative problem solver with a collaborative mindset

What we offer:

- International, friendly and supportive workplace, and healthy work-life balance
- Possibility to work on meaningful projects with real impact
- Flexible home-office
- Wiener Linien annual ticket & MyClubs membership (covered after 3 months of employment)
- Salary per the "Werbung & Marktkommunikation" collective agreement: minimum €2,321.20 gross/month (full-time basis) with overpayment possible based on skills and experience; paid 14x/year

How to apply:

Please send (in English only):

1. Your CV
2. A one-page cover letter
3. A portfolio demonstrating your skills (e.g., example of past projects you worked on) to Jutta Peter at j.peter@eanm.org. Questions are welcome at the same e-mail address.

Early applications encouraged; interviews held on a rolling basis.

If you're ready to help shape the future of healthcare communication in Europe, we'd love to hear from you!