

Data Privacy Policy

1. Data controller

The controller responsible for the processing of personal data on this website is:

European Association of Nuclear Medicine (EANM)
Schmalzhofgasse 26
1060 Vienna
Austria

Phone: +43 (0)1 890 44 27

E-mail: office@eanm.org

2. General information

EANM takes the protection of personal data seriously. Personal data collected through this website are processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other applicable data protection legislation.

Personal data are processed only where there is an appropriate legal basis for doing so.

3. Server log files

When you access this website, certain technical information may automatically be transmitted by your browser to our web server. This may include:

- IP address
- Date and time of access
- Requested page or file
- Referring website
- Browser type and version
- Operating system
- Amount of data transferred

These data are processed to ensure the security, stability, and proper functioning of the website.

Where applicable, this processing is based on EANM's legitimate interest in providing a secure and functional website pursuant to Article 6(1)(f) GDPR.

Server log data are retained only for as long as necessary for these purposes, unless longer retention is required for security, legal, or technical reasons.

4. Contacting EANM

If you contact EANM using an email address provided on this website, we process the personal data you provide in order to respond to and manage your enquiry.

Depending on the nature of your enquiry, processing may be based on Article 6(1)(b) GDPR where it relates to pre-contractual or contractual matters, or Article 6(1)(f) GDPR based on EANM's legitimate interest in responding to enquiries.

Please do not submit sensitive personal information unless it is necessary for your enquiry.

5. Cookies and similar technologies

This website uses cookies and may use similar technologies. Cookies are small files stored on your device.

Cookies that are strictly necessary for the operation, security, and basic functionality of the website may be used without consent where permitted by applicable law.

Other cookies and technologies, including those used for analytics, external media, or other optional functions, are activated only after you have provided your consent where consent is legally required.

Where processing is based on consent, the legal basis is Article 6(1)(a) GDPR. You may withdraw or change your consent at any time through the cookie settings available on this website. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal.

Further information about the individual cookies and technologies used, their providers, purposes, and duration can be found in the cookie settings available on this website.

6. External links and social media

This website may contain links to external websites and social media platforms.

When you follow an external link, you leave this website. The respective external provider is responsible for the processing of personal data on its website or platform.

Where social media icons on this website function solely as links, no direct connection with the relevant social media provider is established until you click the link.

7. Registration for the EANM Unconference

Registration for the EANM Unconference may involve the processing of personal data required to manage registration, payment, participation, and communication relating to the event.

Before registration opens, information will be provided concerning the personal data collected, the purposes and legal bases of processing, relevant service providers or recipients, and applicable retention periods.

Where registration is provided through an external platform, information about the relevant provider and its role in processing personal data will also be provided.

8. Recipients and service providers

EANM may use service providers to operate and maintain this website and to provide related services. Where these providers process personal data on behalf of EANM, appropriate contractual and data-protection safeguards are put in place as required by applicable law.

Personal data are disclosed to other recipients only where necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, where required by law, or where another valid legal basis applies.

9. International data transfers

Where personal data are transferred to a country outside the European Economic Area, EANM ensures that an appropriate legal basis and safeguards for the transfer are in place as required by the GDPR.

Where applicable, further information on international transfers associated with specific services is provided in the relevant section of this Privacy Policy or through the website's cookie settings.

10. Retention of personal data

EANM retains personal data only for as long as necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or as required by applicable legal obligations.

Retention periods may vary depending on the type of data, the purpose of processing, and applicable legal requirements.

11. Your rights

Subject to the requirements and limitations of applicable data protection law, you may have the right to:

- request access to your personal data;
- request correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal data;
- request deletion of your personal data;
- request restriction of processing;
- object to processing based on legitimate interests;
- receive your personal data in a portable format where applicable; and
- withdraw your consent at any time where processing is based on consent.

Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal.

To exercise your rights or ask questions about the processing of your personal data, please contact EANM at office@eanm.org.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a competent data protection supervisory authority. In Austria, the competent authority is:

Austrian Data Protection Authority (Österreichische Datenschutzbehörde)
Barichgasse 40–42
1030 Vienna
Austria

12. Changes to this Privacy Policy

EANM may update this Privacy Policy where necessary to reflect changes to the website, its data-processing activities, or applicable legal requirements.
